

Closing Remarks
Singapore Economic Policy Forum
29 October, 2021
Hilton Singapore

First, as the forum's co-organizer, I would like to thank you for your participation, particularly for Minister Lee and all the session speakers and chairs.

The past year has been tough for everyone. That is partially why we picked uncertainty as the theme of this forum. I believe that one lesson we all learned is that we will face a lot more uncertainties, and sustainable growth is the only way to move forward. I hope the insights shared by our excellent speakers will help us to understand and prepare for various challenges that we might face.

Finally, I would like to thank our own staff, particularly Vivian Tan and Chua Yeow Hwee, for organising this event and ensuring it ran so smoothly.

I thank you once again for your participation and wish you all a happy and safe weekend ahead.
